Paper Title: ____________________________  Author: ____________________________

1. Does the introduction use a grabber/hook statement and thesis statement?

2. Find the thesis statement. Is it clear? Does it reflect the author’s main argument?

3. What is the first example used:
   a. Is there enough background provided for the reader?
   b. Is the example’s significance and influence expressed clearly?

4. What is the second example used:
   a. Is there enough background provided for the reader?
   b. Is the example’s significance and influence expressed clearly?

5. What is the third example used:
   a. Is there enough background provided for the reader?
   b. Is the example’s significance and influence expressed clearly?

6. Does the conclusion restate the thesis statement and tie the paper together?

Is anything missing:

Additional questions, comments, or concerns: