Step 3: Activity 13
Homework Assignment

Directions: Research a hate crime incident between 1996 and 2013 and write a summary of the incident and why it’s important to you.

Suggested research sources:
- Local Newspaper (i.e., Los Angeles Times, The New York Times, etc.)
- Local News Stations
- Local City Hate Crime report
- Internet Search: Hate Crimes

Summary of Incident:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Type of Incident (i.e., racial, sexual orientation, religious, etc.):
________________________________________________________________________

Year of Incident:
________________________________________________________________________

Why is this incident important to you?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

What was the outcome/impact of the incident?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Source:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________